

Carol Paton

- An experienced senior executive turned management consultant.
- A highly experienced facilitator, accredited in business mediation and executive coaching, assisting organisations and professionals to identify ways of working more effectively.
- Mediation experience includes personnel and corporate matters.
- Formerly deputy managing director of a large housing association group, responsible for corporate services and advising on regulatory and governance matters.
- Previously a regulation and inspection manager with the Scottish Executive's Communities Scotland.
- Currently holds various non-executive board positions including a public appointment to the Scottish Commission for the Regulation of Care.